

Community Members have this to say:

“I wanted to give something back to the program that helped our marriage. I do it for the kids—to keep families intact. Marriage is the foundation of a healthy community.”

Retrouvaille Volunteer

“Retrouvaille helps hurting couples. Marriages are being saved. Who wouldn't want to be a part of that?”

Retrouvaille Board Member

“I didn't think I could write. I certainly didn't think I could present a Post talk. But I realize now that everyone's story touches someone; we just have to be willing to share our stories.”

Retrouvaille Post Presenter

“Unshared pain is wasted pain.”

We invite you to take the

Retrouvaille

Challenge...

Dandelions have a twelve-inch taproot and a passion for their mission of sending seeds all over the area. To accomplish the mission of Retrouvaille, we need deep roots, tough roots, determined roots to sow seeds of healing in an anti-marriage culture.

I'm sure we've all heard it said, "If we are not moving forward, we are moving backward."

We all need regular marriage enrichment! Whether you are an experienced writer or just off your Post Talks, whether you wish to present talks some day or not...this weekend is for you. You don't have to promise anything. We don't expect anything. Just come and start the Retrouvaille challenge. We believe it can help you heal and reawaken your marriage.

Why try the "Retrouvaille challenge"?

- To experience the healing power of your unique story
- To be in an environment of spiritual growth and strengthening of the Retrouvaille values of affirmation, intimacy, forgiveness, trust, responsibility, change, addressing conflict, support, prayer, confidentiality, and community
- To connect with other couples who believe in staying married and are working to stay on track
- First-timers learn the "rules of the road" for writing your story which is one of the deepest forms of healing Retrouvaille has to offer
